INTRODUCTION:

For the first time in many years, I felt brave enough to step outside of my musical comfort zone. I had been listening to the same old genre for years, and I wanted to try something new. On December 5th, 2022, I saw an upbeat, bright and colorful YouTube thumbnail of a rainbow sparklewolf, questioning whether or not inhaling glitter glue would turn it into glitter. I clicked on the song, and I fell in love.

Nekozuna had instantly become one of my favorite artists in only the span of a few days. I loved how happy and imaginative she kept herself and her channel. I adored her music and her characters, especially her mascot for the channel, which was a white and rainbow sparklewolf named Glitter. Nekozuna would use Glitter more than the character she used to portray herself, and would title a majority of her songs in honor of it. Her love for Glitter later turned into creating an AI for it, where anyone could have conversations with Glitter. I gave the AI a try out of curiosity, and because I was such a fan of her music, I asked the AI if I could friend Nekozuna over Discord. Glitter's AI generated response excitedly said that I could.

Message @nekozuna

We talked through what she was feeling, and she showed many signs of not receiving enough love as a child. I felt for her, and offered myself to be a motherly figure towards her, not knowing that she already had several other people around my age doing this exact same thing for her. This hurts to look back on.

i mean like,, i guess i just want to be cared for in like a "parental" way or something , im the oldest in my family so i never really got that treatment as a kid
·˖·BLAYNE·˖·
12/29/2022 3:22 AM
awe, yeah i'm basically the oldest child in my family considering my older sister is physically disabled so, ive always had to be the caretaker for everyone aswell. i definitely get that, and i feel that parents forget that being the oldest child doesnt mean you arent still.. a child? if that makes sense?

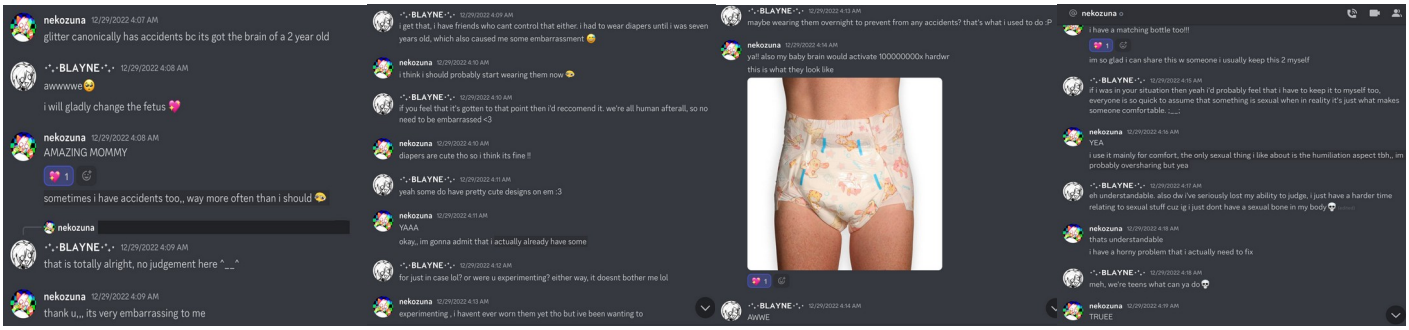
I genuinely thought that I was helping her, I even let her overstep boundaries just so I could be the person that she could always go to. The person that she didn't have to mask things with, the person that she could be completely honest with. I wanted to matter to Nekozuna because I was such a big fan of her, and she took advantage of this. It wasn't long before she started talking to me about her secret collection of diapers.

ESCALATION:

Nekozuna vented to me about her issue with having accidents. As someone who had to wear diapers until I was 7 years old, I was able to relate to her situation. Of course, I knew what diaper kinks were before all of this as I've been exposed to it through unrestricted internet access, but the way she was talking about her situation made it seem like this was something that was out of her control. I obviously wasn't going to make fun of her for it since I know what it's like, so I accepted her. I didn't know at the time that this was all a complete lie.



nekozuna 12/29/2022 4:07 AM

·˖·BLAYNE·˖· 12/29/2022 4:10 AM

She quickly began referring to me as “mommy” and went into detail more often about how much she liked to wear diapers. She even had me explain to her in a step-by-step process how to change her own diaper because she was “too baby to do it herself”.

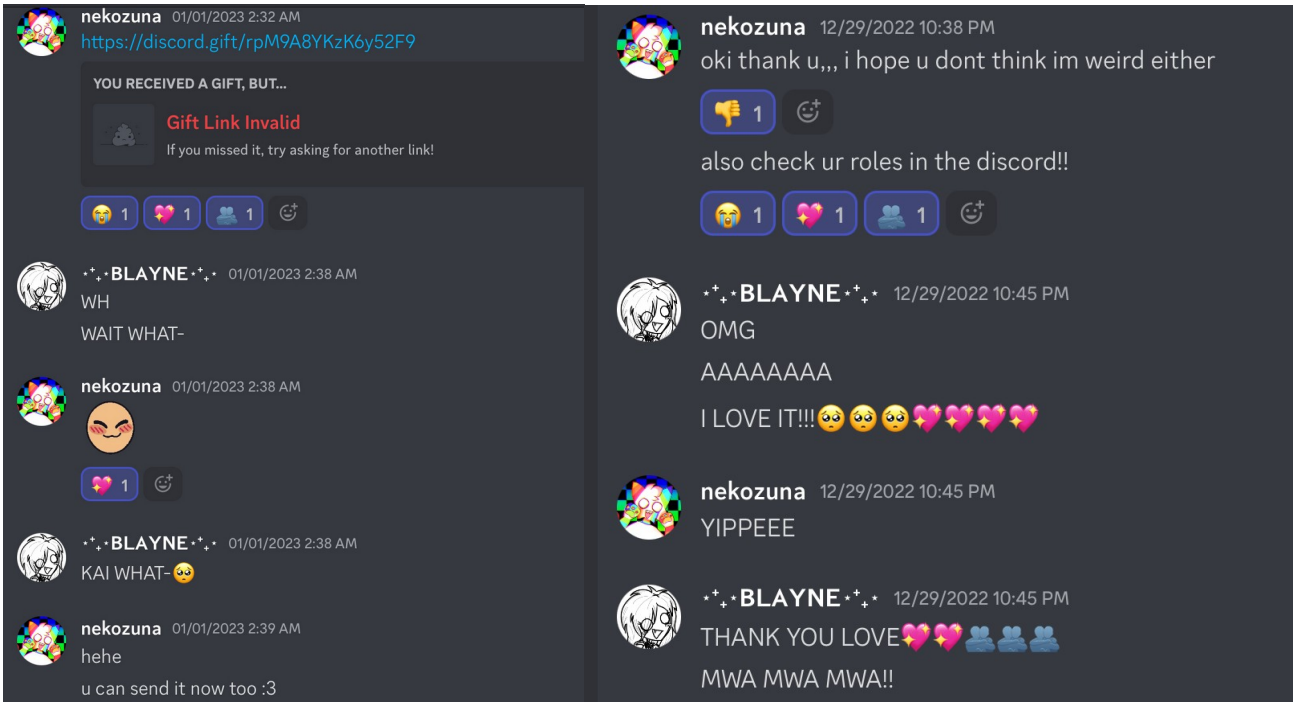
Nekozuna would even go as far as to gift me Discord Nitro so that I could send her a video of me baby-talking her, and gave me a specific role in her Discord server called “SERVER MOTHER”.



(TW for upcoming content: sexual remarks, mentions of grooming)

GOING TOO FAR:

Nekozuna finally went overboard with her sexual remarks, and started targeting them towards me. No matter how many times I had previously told her that I am asexual and in a relationship, she would continue to make creepy comments about me and ask me uncomfortable questions regardless.

you were my biggest inspiration. you had an entire fanbase of over 700 people who adored your music, drew your characters and loved you for who you were. you were funny, and sweet from the first message i sent you. i squealed when you first responded to me, i felt like your biggest fan even.
i somewhat regret it. if i hadnt gotten too close and personal then i would still be able to listen to your beautiful songs without remembering all that i have witnessed so far. if i hadn't reached out to be your friend then i would still be ignorant and happy it sucks, it fucking sucks, i finally had a furry musician to look up to that wasn't problematic and didn't overshare to younger-aged girls.

that's really all any of us can ask from you is to learn from it.
alt account Today at 11:17 AM
i'm heartbroken that i let you down and i wish i could make it up to you, i wish this never happened i wish i wasn't an awful person im so sorry ·˚.·Blayne·˚.· Today at 11:19 AM
i forgive you, for apologizing to me, because it's more than most would do.
but i cant forgive whoever inside you said those things to that girl.
because it's exactly what most would do.
·˚.·Blayne·˚.· Today at 11:22 AM
i really can't see everything between us returning back to normal, especially after this. i wish it could but really it would all be faked and forced.
i will never lie to you, i will never be fake towards you. the truth is maybe we should move on for the better.

im sorry
i hate this please don't leave me alone
·˚.·Blayne·˚.· Today at 11:24 AM
you don't need someone like me who knows so much about you to stick by your side and watch you rebuild it all. it's best that you start from a clean slate, maybe even under a new name. do whatever you must to keep making music and thriving. please stay happy losing contact with you will only make this worse

i just want to know why you want to cut me off if you care about me so much Today at 11:50 AM
you aren't getting it.
i don't want to cut you off, but i'm feeling forced to because of your actions. you aren't the person i thought you were and i'm coming to terms with that, but by asking you to unfriend me, you would be physically proving to me that you are willing to change instead of just saying it. i am sorry, but i cannot just take your word for things anymore.
i will move on with peace knowing that you really meant it when you said that you want to be a better person. and in order to become better, you must leave me in the past along with your past actions.

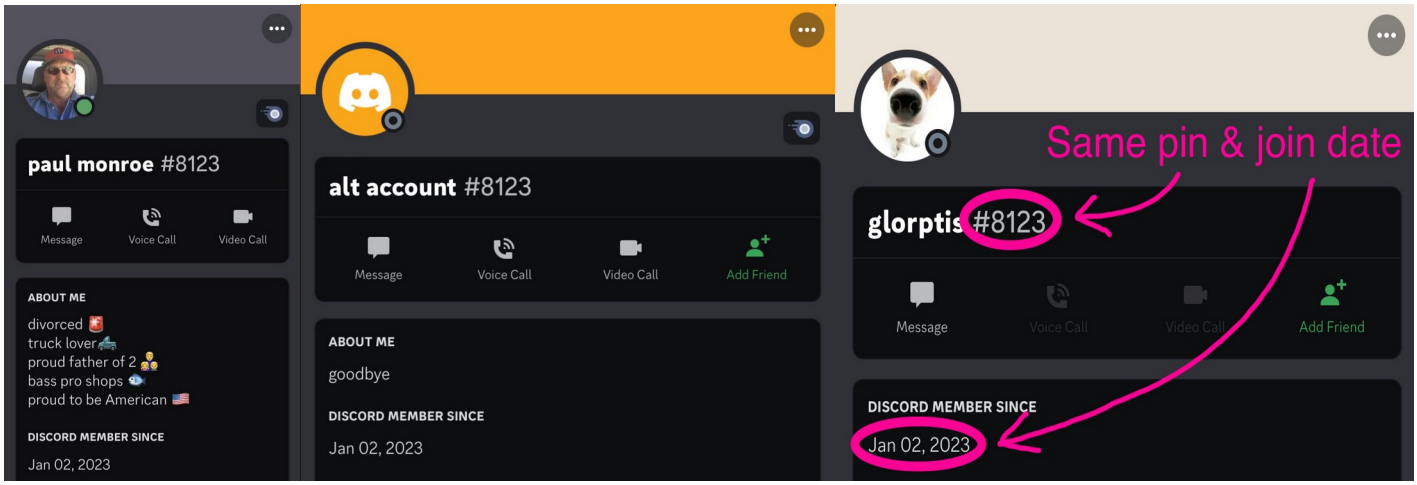
(Proof that these are the same accounts as “glorptis”, aka Nekozuna’s spare account.)



Nekozuna isn't even trying to hide the fact that she had sexual interactions with a girl who is two years younger than me, and SIX YEARS younger than her. I am beyond devastated and heartbroken to have witnessed firsthand what my ex-favorite musician has done to an innocent child. I had only known her for seven days.

CONCLUSION:

Nekozuna was my biggest inspiration. She had a fanbase of over eight thousand people who adored her music, drew her characters, and loved her for who she was. She was funny, and sweet from the first message I sent her. But, I have learned my lesson: I will never become too close with another artist again. I am now unable to enjoy any of Nekozuna's music or characters since all of this has happened, even if NONE of her characters even turned out to be hers in the first place (minus Brat). I cannot express how much I regret reaching out to her, I wish I could still look up to her without remembering all that she's done to me. But even then, I am not the only minor that Nekozuna has groomed. A friend of mine, who I will refer to as Taff, is the 13 year old that is being recognized as the only victim of Nekozuna's grooming allegations. She was exposed to so much worse than I was, but our situations are both scarily similar. Nekozuna both overshared to us, talked sexually to us, and used suicide/self harm tactics on us. And even then, other users who are under sixteen are still coming forth to me with screenshots of Nekozuna attempting to use these same tactics on them. It's sickening.
Who knows how many other victims are still out there that have yet to speak out against Nekozuna?

Kai, if you are reading this, I only have one thing to say to you: I will never forget you.

Thank you for reading.
